Welcome to the Estrella War XXXIV Arts & Sciences (A&S) Collegium! We have a wide variety of classes and demonstrations from which to choose that are scheduled Wednesday through Saturday at the A & S Pavillion/Ramada. Classes and demonstrations will be held at the A&S Pavilion/Ramada, unless otherwise noted in the schedule. Please stop by and see what we have to offer.

Sign up for each day's classes begins that morning - Wednesday through Saturday at 8 am. The classes are filled on a first-come, first-served basis, so stop by early to guarantee your spot. If the class is full, there will be a wait list available.

Warning: This schedule is subject to change without notice. While every effort is made to have the most up-to-date information, there WILL be changes made from the time this gatebook is printed and the start of the event. The online schedule will reflect changes and additions. Also, the most current daily schedules will be posted on kiosks throughout the war site and at the front gate. Any last minute changes or cancellations will be posted in the Collegium Ramada.

10:00 AM	Shakespeare's Bawdy--THL Kenna McKenna	Forget the boring highbrow stuff from Eng. Lit. 101--the Elizabethan playwrights weren't nearly as tame as you think they were! This one hour class will discuss the risqué humor missed by today's audience due to shifts in English idiom. Also to be discussed are the impact of censorship, the nature of London and rural playgoers, and what the Elizabethans regarded as funny. We will explore how playwrights such as Marlowe, Kyd, Greene, Jonson, and Shakespeare used comedic techniques such as the "bed trick," cross-dressing, double entendre, and gesture. After attending this class you, too, can be the only one in the theater laughing because you 'get it.' Warning: This lecture is not vanilla. It is somewhere between the level of a TV show like "Bones" and the R-rated "South Park" movie. Alas, no one under 18 can be admitted (they'll have to look it up on the internet like everyone else).	1 Hour	B3
10:00 AM	Block or Stamp printing and Stenciling on fabric--Isabelle Le Charpentier de Normandie	Technique for printing fabric using block, stamps, or stencils. Class fee $1. Class limit 10. Adult (18 yrs +)	1 Hour	C1

1:00 PM	Ancient Off-Loom Weaving Technique: Ply-Split Darning & Ply Split Braiding--Ambre Renee	These closely related techniques are an ancient off loom weaving type closely related to rope making/cording. This is a primitive technique that has been continuous use since discovery, and never fallen into disuse. I will demonstrate cord-making using a modern device (i.e powered motor) which we will then weave using both the ply-split darning and ply split weaving techniques. This is slower than weaving on a loom but is easily portable. This is the ancestor or all weaving techniques, but inkle weaving even uses some of the same pattern techniques. This is an extremely strong cord as both techniques are effectively a form of decorative rope splicing. Bring scissors an a large eye yarn needle threader if you have them. If you have 2 high contrast similar weight yarns (man-made material easier to learn on) bring a yard or two and we will make it into card you can weave. I will bring the specialty needles available for both use and purchase if desired. Youth and children welcome but must be accompanied by an adult on a one to one basis due to concentration and individual one-on-one instruction required. Class fee $2 for materials, and additional cost if you wish to purchase needles. Class limit 10.	2 Hours	C1
